ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR RELIEF
FROM AUTOMATIC STAY AND/OR CODEBTOR STAY (DOC. NO. 17)
DUE TO NONCOMPLIANCE WITH CODE AND/OR RULES

The above-referenced Motion for Relief from Automatic Stay and/or Codebtor Stay (hereinafter, the "Motion") does not comply with the United States Bankruptcy Code and/or the Federal/Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure as noted below:

☒ The mandatory notice references a motion filed on October 21, 2016; however, the instant motion was filed on November 22, 2016.

It is ORDERED that if (1) a filing deadline applies to the document that is the subject of this order, (2) the document was filed within that deadline, but such deadline had expired on the date this order was entered or will expire within 10 days from the date of entry of this order and (3) the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure do not preclude an enlargement of the deadline for filing the document, then the party filing the document shall have 10 calendar days from the date of entry of this order to file a motion which corrects the deficiencies described above. If the time period for filing the document has not already expired, but instead will expire on a date that is later than 10 days after the date of entry of the order, then the party will have until such date to file a motion which corrects the deficiencies.

The Motion for Relief from Stay is DENIED without prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
